TRAVERS AT TOP SPEED FIRST ROUND AT MATCH PLAY

New Jersey Final.

KIRKBY IS BEATEN AGAIN

Montclair Golfer Recaptures State Title by Impressive Display of Skill.

Playing golf of a quality seldom exhiban amateur on this side, of the Atlantle Jerome D. Travers, representing the Upper' Montclair Country Club, defeated swald Kirkby, of Englewood, by the score of 5 up and 1 to play, in the thirty-six hole final round of the New Jersey State championship tournament on the links of the Englewood Country Club yesterday Only a week ago Travers, with Kirkby for rictim, won the metropolitan fitle at Garden City, all of which causes the mind to turn back to that memorable year, 1907,

Travers when right, few believed he had it in him to "come back" to the rare degree shown yesterday. After the match his opponent, Travers got far enough so respectively. that the slight advantage in the Englewood man's favor made no material difference when it came to making the second shot Whether using driving iron, mashle or figger, it was all the same to Jerry, generally had both direction and distance Most of his ap preaches were laid up with a back spin admired by all, yet attained by so few. The understood when it is said that at five holes on the morning round Travers is, a stroke under par.

His only real lapse during the earl beeled two drives out of bounds. Oddly enough. Kirkby also had one ball out at the same place. The Englewood record holder generally kept on the course, but as all long players are bound to do he got off the line now and again, and when his ball did find the rough it almost invariably cost him the hole. Kiraby's golf, while good, was not brilliant. Against some players he is irresistible, but with Travers for an opponent it seems to be a differ-

Par for the course is 73, and Travers, with rounds of 72 and 73, heat this a stroke on the day. Kirkby's 149 for the double round would have won nineteen times out of twenty. In the large gallery was Vincent P. Travers, father of the champion. The elder Travers was naturally pleased at his son's showing ing the morning round. Travers always had the upper hand. Kirkby began auspiclouely by winning the first hole in 3 to 5. but Travers returned the compliment at the next, laying an approach dead. They were all square at the turn, the stroke reading 87 to 36 in Kirkby's favor.

Fravers practically won the match by winning the last three holes of the mornng round, as it enabled him to retire for on with a lead of 4 up. He made the nd in 72 as against 75 for Kirkby.

BONHAG BREAKS RECORD

Great Distance Runner Sets New Three-Mile Mark.

RUNS A BRILLIANT RACE

Keen Sport Enlivens Thousands of Spectators at Travers Island Games.

George Bonhag, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, further established his fame as the greatest American distance runner by shattering the three-mile record yesterday afternoon in the spring games of the New York Athletic Club, at Travers Island. The new mark, displacing the record of 16 minutes 39 seconds, made in 1889 by Wille Day at the old Bergen Point track of the New Jersey Athletic Club, is 14 minutes 23 seconds, and in making it Bonhag ran one of the greatest races of the year. It was the more remarkable because he had to make practically all the running and act. Bonhag's sterling performance was the crowning feature of an afternoon of first class sport. Eddie Frick, of the New York Athletic Club, ran a beautiful race in the half mile and won from scratch in 1:58, and there were other equally good performances both cinder path and field, notable among them being Platt Adams's 23 feet 414 inches in the broad jump. One disappointment, however, was the vaulting of Harry S. Babcock, of Columbia, who set the intercollegiate record at 12 feet 8% inches in the Harvard Stadium last week. Yesterday the best the Columbia captain could do was Il feet 6 inches, at which height he dropped out of competition.

Every one of the five thousand spectators came prepared for rain, but umbrellas and mackintoshes were not needed, and except for the fact that the sun was buried under a blanket of gray clouds, the day was probably the best that could be had. It ras cool enough to be comfortable for both athletes and onlookers, and the absence of a trace of wind made conditions for fast time the best. The rain of the early day had softened up the track a mite too much. but it was in great shape for the distance mile record, and he did just what was expected of him on the self same track on which he lowered E. C. Curtis's five mile record last fall Bonhag can from scratch against a field numbering close to two lozen men, but he shook them all off, is the exception E. J. Fitzgerald, a Mercury Foot runner, before he had covered a mile. Fitzgerald plodded out in front for several cut loose the New York Athletic Club man was hardly in the race.
